PRICE THREE CENTS

POOR FARM TO BE TOPIC AT MEETING

Mrs. Euphemia Dunn Speaker at Session of Voters' League.

TO HOLD CARD PARTY

A discussion of "Our Poor Farm," with the duties and responsibilities of the members of this board, will be the principal subject on the next program of the League of Women Voters. The meeting will be held next Monday, February 8, in the Y. M. C. A., at 3 P. M. Mrs. Euphemia Dunn, a member of the Poor Board of Montgomery county, will give this information.

The County League has long advocated the acquisition of a social service worker in connection with the "Poor Farm," but at the annual meeting of the poor farm board held last month there seemed to be some question about making such an appointment. The supervision of the insane and its budget has also been included in the duties and budget for the poor farm for 1926, thereby increasing their former budget from $120,000 to $208,000.

Since this is of great importance, this opportunity is given to you to know more about your own affairs. In addition, other important information, legislative and political, will be given at this time.

An executive board meeting was held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. C. P. Fowler, on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Ernest C. Drew was appointed to fill the unexpired term of treasurer. Mrs. Harold C. Fenno has accepted the office of membership chairman and Mrs. Earl Achenbach that of chairman of publicity. At the conclusion of the board meeting a committee meeting, including about 15 members of the League, was held for the purpose of discussing ways and means of meeting the local quota to the county. To this end a card party will be held on Tuesday, February 23, in the Y. M. C. A. Tickets 75 cents. Please save this date and bring your friends.

Mrs. Arthur C. Staples will have charge of prizes. Mrs. George N. Gill and Mrs. C. P. Fowler, tickets; Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller will supervise the card party, Mrs. Clarence A. Speakman, Mrs. Clifford W. Bates and Mrs. H. C. Fenno will procure tables. At the conclusion of the meeting a buffet luncheon was served.

Don't forget the dates, Monday, February 8, and Tuesday, March 23, at the Y. M. C. A.

UNION YOUNG PEOPLE IN FIRST MEETING

Large Attendance Marks Gathering From Four Churches.

The newly-formed League of Young People's Societies of the churches in Narberth met for the first time in the Baptist Church last Sunday evening.

The president, James McCutcheon, had an exceptionally fine program prepared due to the co-operation and enthusiasm shown by each society.

The Presbyterians cheerfully volunteered a girls' chorus and pianist. The Lutherans offered their services in the form of the evening prayer and Scripture reading. The Baptists were pleased to present their pastor, Rev. Robert E. Keigh-ton, an able Young People's leader, as speaker for the evening. His topic, "Cemeteries, Tombstones and Epitaphs—A Grave Subject," certainly proved to be of grave importance to young people of today. Besides being instructive, educational and humorous, it had back of it a deep religious sense, which made it the priceless piece of knowledge and inspiration to the young people it proved to be.

This splendid meeting sets a very high standard for future meetings, so it is needless to say what is in store for our young people.

It was encouraging to see two of our pastors there; we are looking for them all at the next meeting.

We are hoping for 100 per cent. attendance for the next league activity, which happens to be a social, February 12, at the Presbyterian Church. Let us have every Narberth young person present!

COMMUNITY CLUB BIDS FAREWELL TO MRS. FOWLER, LONG PROMINENT HERE

League of Women Voters Joins in Luncheon. Contributions to Building Fund Announced at Interesting Meeting.

February 2, 1926, will be long remembered in the Community Club as one of those glad-sad days when we say goodbye in the midst of jollity, for it was the official farewell of the club to its faithful leader and servant, Mrs. C. P. Fowler. This serial celebration began with a luncheon at the Southern Lodge in Ardmore, given to Mrs. Fowler by the board of directors and executive board of the club, jointly with the executive board of the League of Women Voters. Other guests were Mrs. Hermann L. Schwartz, of Wynnewood, co-worker with Mrs. Fowler in the State League of Women Voters, and Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, of Germantown, the "god-mother" and constant friend of the Community Club.

The stated meeting of the club at 2:30 o'clock began with the usual half-hour of business. The appointment of Mrs. Dunstan Smith as chairman of welfare was announced. Her duties include the care and distribution of the "comforts for the sick," a service free to all. Mrs. Batchelor invited anyone wishing to join the personally-conducted visit to the winter exhibition at the Academy of Fine Arts, which has been arranged for February 12, to send in her name and her dollar as soon as possible. The party is to leave Narberth at 9:29 A. M., February 12. Mrs. Torrey reported on Congressional affairs with those little human touches that make the facts more alive.

Mrs. Darville introduced Mr. Daniel Leitch, who presented the gift of the Merion Title and Trust Company to the building fund—$500. Mrs. Darville announced other gifts: W. T. Smedley, $100; John Caldwell, $100; George Markle, $20; James A. Stretch, $20. The Community Club is glad to make public acknowledgment of the generosity of these good friends.

The major item in the afternoon's program was a lecture by Henry S. Marcotte, D. D., "Some Poets, Some Women, and Us." After dwelling on the idealization of women by all great poets, Dr. Marcotte came to his real message—that modern woman in her determination to become a comrade to her menfolk must not forget to be an inspiration as well.

Mrs. W. S. Horner gave two of her flute-like whistling solos; Massenet's Elegie, with cello obligato by Mr. W. P. Nash, and Pale Moon, an Indian song. Mrs. A. B. Ross accompanied both numbers.

After the formal program came a reception for Mrs. Fowler by the club and the League of Women Voters, to which all the women of the borough were invited. Mrs. Jacobs expressed appreciation of Mrs. Fowler's many services to the club and its regret at her departure. CONTINUED ON THE FOURTH PAGE

THE TENNIS DANCES

Rackety Scribe Proclaims Virtues of N. T. A. Hops.

The attendance at the last tennis dance shows that it pays to advertise in "Our Town," or in the words of yours truly:

Sound your horn on all occasions; Claim the Earth and Seven Seas, Because the wheel that creaks the loudest

Is the one that gets the grease! We certainly are glad that the Entertainment Committee had the foresight to get all those tickets printed, but we hope we do not have to stand the expense of repairs to the dance floor due to the large crowd at the last dance. However, everything at the hall has been fixed to hold twice the number.

By the way, we hope you liked the strip tickets and that you thought well of "Richard's" idea of having a little program on the back of the tickets and that it was helpful to you. Or, did you see it? The applause cards were not very numerous.

By scanning the record of attendance, we note that everybody received their tickets, but by comparing this list with the records of the treasurer, we note somewhat of a deficiency. Let's please see to it that all the $8 have been received by the treasurer by the time of the Valentine Dance, 1926. (The reason the last sentence is not capped is, well, I just mailed my check this A. M.)

We suppose you have heard all about the prizes distributed at the last dance, so there is no use to mention the fact, but to say that they'll get better'n better at the coming affairs.

The time to tear the next ticket off your strip will be Friday evening, February 12. Come and bring your own Valentine, or somebody else's (comic or otherwise) and we promise a pleasant evening will be had by all. And as usual there will be music that is.

After every dance we hear of cases where Narberthites and others "would have come had they known that the dances were public." We certainly have tried for years through this and other mediums to let everybody know that they are welcome at each and every one of the dances. This is still true, and we hope that the attendance will be seriously increased.

If you do not already have tickets, the same may be procured for the remainder of the dances, or you may pay at the door on the evening of the dances, whichever is more convenient to you.

Reminder: Better get the old tin shirt out today and exchange it temporarily for a blue, yellow, green or pink ticket, as there are only a few days left.

ALBERT GOLZE

Old Narberth Resident Dies Suddenly in Philadelphia.

Albert Golze, of 104 Maple avenue, died at the Jefferson Hospital Tuesday night after a very brief illness. He collapsed on the street and died without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Golze was a member of the firm of Little & Golze, merchant tailors, of 42 South Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, and Princeton, N. J.

He was the son of the late Gustavus Golze, a tailor on Arch street, Philadelphia. He had been a resident of Narberth nearly 20 years and well known in the borough. Interested in trees and gardens, he was, at the time of his death, a member of the Borough Shade Tree Commission, on which body he had served since its formation.

He was a thirty-second degree Mason and an active Shriner. He attended the Narberth Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Laura Root Golze; two brothers, Rudolph Golze, of Washington, D. C., solicitor to the Controller General of the United States, and Leon Golze, of Philadelphia; three sisters, the Misses Emily and Matilda Golze, and Mrs. Charles M. Fletcher, all of Philadelphia.

Funeral services will be held today from parlors at 1820 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

ORCHESTRA SOLOIST

Helen Fairchild Jesso, soprano, will be the soloist with the Main Line Orchestra at the second concert of the season on February 21 at the Ardmore Theatre. She will sing the "Jewel Song" from Faust with orchestra, and a group of solo numbers during the second half of the program.

This is your paper, and your advice is appreciated.

Scope of Community Library Is Explained for New Residents

The many new residents of Narberth and vicinity will be interested to learn briefly just what the Narberth Community Library is and how they may use it and enjoy its facilities.

It is a public library and is located on the street floor of the Y. M. C. A. Building, at the corner of Haverford and Forrest avenues. It is open every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock, and every Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The library contains more than 4000 volumes on open shelves, fic-

REPORTERS HAVE MUCH TO RECORD

School Pupils Enjoy Wealth of Extra-Curricular Activities.

ALUMNI BEST VARSITY

On Friday, January 30, 1926, the Senior Dramatic Club entertained the school with an unusually good program. Mrs. Elsbree, the head of the club, gave a very interesting talk concerning the club as a whole. The club gave as their contribution a group of plays. The first three were fairy tales of three legends dramatized by Constance D'Arcy Mackay. The first one was called "The Brewing of Brains." This fairy tale tells the story of a little boy who goes to buy brains of the wise woman of the fells. She tells him that his own sense is the only brains he can ever hope to have. The play was coached by Mildred Gilfillan and Marian Henry. The following people took part in the play:

Durlock—Vestus Spindler. Elsbeth—Sara Burgess. Old Wise Woman—Eleanor Michaelson.

The second fairy tale was "The Foam Maiden." This is an Irish tale. It tells what happens to a little boy who catches a mermaid in his net. This play was coached by Dorothy Cleverger. These were the characters:

The Foam Maiden—Kathleen Newborg.

Morra—Ellen Pray.

Michael—Ralph Bowman.

The third, a very interesting play, was called "The Three Wishes." This is an old French family legend. It tells what happens to people who wish for things that are outside their sphere of life. The moral is that people should be satisfied with what they have and not ask for more. This play was coached by Helga Wohler. The people that took part are the following:

Lizette—Katharine Smith. Andre—Eugene Lane.

The Stranger—Henry Brooks.

The fourth and last was "A Night at an Inn," coached by Ruth Hopkins. This is a story of an idol in quest of its ruby eye; it was written by Lord Dunsany. The characters were as follows:

A. E. Scott-Fortesque (The Toff)—Howard Clappool.

William Jones—Robert Valette.

Albert Thomas—Arthur Bailey.

Jacob Smith (Sniggers)—Charles Ross.

First Priest—Jack Walsh.

Second Priest—Llewellyn Brooks.

Third Priest—Malcolm Forsythe.

Klesh—Ruth Hopkins.

Monthly Musicals.

The Baptist Church presents its monthly musicale on Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The program is made up entirely of choral numbers interpreted by a triple quartet. Twelve trained voices make it possible to combine the skillful artistry of a quartet with the impressive power of a chorus.

The anthems to be sung are: "Cherubim Song," Bortayansky; "Day of Judgment," Arnkangelsky; "Blessed Jesu," from "Stabat Mater," Dvorak; "Lift Thine Eyes," Trio for Women's Voices, Mendelssohn; "There Shall Be No Night There," David Wood; "Ho! Everyone That Thirsteth," Smart.

The training of the triple quartet has been in the capable hands of Mr. Walter B. Taft, musical director of the church.

WHERE'S THE PARADE?

Last Friday afternoon housewives of the borough were busy about their domestic duties. Suddenly there came the sound of loud music.

From various parts of the town they came, hastily donning overcoats. Soon a small group of citizens walked into the center of town to watch the parade.

But there were no marchers, no uniformed players. Instead they found only a small box on the pavement in front of the Narberth Electric Shop. From it came music—very loud music.

It appeared that Walter Case had tuned in a New York station on one of his big sets, coupling that up with a powerful loud speaker outside the store. The crowd dispersed and went back to their homes, and listened to the sweet melodies, wafted over some blocks of air, in the privacy of their own parlors.

MANY FROM MAIN LINE AT ANNUAL SCOUT DINNER

Stites and Ludlow Speakers—Wolf Represents Narberth Troop.

The Main Line was well represented at the annual meeting and dinner of the boy scout officers of Delaware and Montgomery counties, held in the Bellevue-Stratford, Saturday. There were twenty-two scoutmasters and sixteen council members and guests, making a total of thirty-eight, from this district.

Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, and Assemblyman Ludlow, of Ardmore, were among the speakers. The latter attended both as speaker and as a troop committeeman from Ardmore.

Among the Main Liners present at the dinner were the following: Council and guests: Maj. John Lewis Evans, President; Clayton M. Hunsicker, Vice President; E. B. Newcomer, member of Council; John A. Yohn; H. Craig Sutton, member of Council; William P. Cochran, Vice President and Chairman of Camp Delmont Committee; Isaac C. Sutton, Commissioner; Dr. B. K. Wilbur, Associate Commissioner; Roger T. Burns, Chairman Camp Improvement Committee; Frank M. Hardt, Vice President; Henry A. Reinhold, Jr., Member of Council; Walton Forstall, Assistant Treasurer and Chairman of Court of Honor; Edward A. Carlson, Scout Executive; Edgar S. Gardner, member of Council; Wm. K. Holman, member of Council; B. H. Ludlow, member of Council.

Scoutmasters, Troop Committeemen and guests:

Narberth: Edwin T. Wolf.

Wynnewood: Francis A. Gray.

Wayne: John C. Foster.

ANNA CASE

Prominent Soprano on Main Line Orchestra Program.

The Main Line Orchestra Association has announced that Anna Case, America's foremost soprano, is to be the soloist at the first "Intimate Recital" given under the direction of the Main Line Orchestra Association.

For the association to bring this talent to the Main Line is in itself a feat, but in addition to this, it will have two concerts by the Main Line Orchestra with soloists, and a concert by the French-Cook-Vogel Trio with a vocal soloist assisting. All this is for the membership fee of $10, which assures two seats for each event.

The Main Line Orchestra Association has not only brought splendid recognition musically to the entire Main Line by its efforts in bringing the orchestra to such a high standard, but believes also that the public should be able to hear the world's best talent in the form of recitals. Also have a combination of orchestra concerts with splendid soloists and the internationally-known artists in form of recitals, too.

INFORM COUNTY OF MANDAMUS ACTION

Tuberculosis Society Will Seek Court Order for Hospital.

ASK PLACE IN BUDGET

Montgomery County Commissioners were officially notified last week by the Montgomery County Tuberculosis Society that mandamus proceedings would be instituted in an attempt to force the erection of a county tuberculosis hospital.

The notice was in the form of a letter from Attorney Irvin Knipe, "I am preparing a petition to be presented to the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery county for a mandamus to compel the county and its Commissioners to proceed to acquire a site and prepare plans and construct a county tuberculosis hospital," the attorney wrote.

"As the filing of this petition may be somewhat delayed, I am giving you this advance notice so you can include in your 1926 budget such contributions as you deem proper to enable you to carry out the order of the Court, if, as we hope, our petition is granted."

The intention of the Tuberculosis Society to seek a Court order was made some months ago when repeated efforts to get the county to build the hospital as ordered by voters at the polls failed.

Is a Test Case.

The move was a test action, Dr. William G. Miller, president of the society, declared at a meeting of its directors in Norristown, Tuesday last. Other counties in the States where the erection of hospitals are pending are watching the Montgomery county case.

Dr. Miller stated that the mandamus proceedings petition has been signed by the Governor and that the Attorney General had agreed to bring suit in the name of the Commonwealth.

A few minutes after the receipt of the letter notifying the county of the mandamus proceedings, County Controller Irvin presented a budget for 1926 in which provision was made for the care of tubercular patients at the Montgomery County Home near Black Horse. Mr. Irvin completed his budget before receiving information of the move of the Montgomery County Tuberculosis Society.

In Care of Poor Directors.

The controller contends the poor directors should have jurisdiction over the tuberculosis patients as well as the indigent insane. For the almshouse an appropriation of $208,000 is provided, which will take care of the county home, main-

FLAG DISPLAY

Legion Asks for Uniform Use On Lincoln's Birthday.

Lincoln's birthday, February 12, will be the first patriotic holiday we have had since the introduction of the uniform flag display system, officially indorsed by the American Legion, and now in vogue in nearly 3000 cities and towns.

The new system involves the placing of the colors on uniform standards at intervals along the curb in the business section, but the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary urge that a liberal display of the colors be made general among the residents and on public places so that on February 12 our streets will be a vista of color. Let us show our patriotic love for Lincoln and also for our beautiful flag.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Narberth Presbyterian Church will be held on this Wednesday, February 10, 1926, from 10 to 4 o'clock.

A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the Westminster Circle to join with us on this day as the Auxiliary guests.

All women of the church are urged to interest their friends in this work.

APPOINTED GUARDIAN

A Court order issued at Norristown during the past week appointed Attorney Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, as the guardian of Virginia Eyre, minor, on a bond of $6000.

SENIOR DANCE OPENS
L. M. HIGH SOCIAL SEASONReports for Second Quarter Out
Ready for Chester.

The senior dance held on Saturday evening in the Junior High School gym in Ardmore opened the social season at the high school. Members of the faculty and parents of seniors were the chaperones.

Later in the season the junior-senior dance will be held. It will be given by the juniors to the seniors as the closing formal dance of the school season.

Current topics were given by Frederick Dantle and John J. Jones in assembly on Tuesday morning. The topics given were a discussion of the Japanese-Chinese situation and America's stand on the World Court.

Report cards were issued to all Lower Merion township students over the past week-end as the second quarter terminated. Report cards had to be returned signed by a parent not later than Wednesday morning or the pupil was sent home to fulfill that duty.

A clean-up campaign has been started by the faculty at the high school to have students make up past failures. Much has already been accomplished through the insistence of the teachers.

Elections of room officers are being held during the beginning of the third quarter. Each room elects a president, vice president and secretary and the president then attends Student Council every Monday morning. No candidate may be elected for that office more than twice during the school year.

A call for relay team candidates was made by Coach Grossman Tuesday morning and 18 promising youngsters made application for the four positions. The Maroon and White has held its colors high when competing against other schools in this event.

The Lower Merion one-mile relay team of 1924 holds the present suburban championship record of 3:34 2-5 minutes, made at the Pennsylvania relay carnival. The most promising candidates at the present time appear to be John Turner, Ronald Derry, James Smyth, Frank Houseman, Joe Rubischon, Albert Kohlas, Wendell Stewart, Richmond Berry, Thomas Ottey and Gerenback.

This afternoon the Lower Merion varsity five meets the Chester quintet on the Ardmore floor at 3:30 o'clock sharp. The Adam-coached aggregation has lost the lead in the suburban title race, but hopes to come back strong in the second half of the league season and topple Norristown. However, West Chester must be overcome in its cage and Radnor looms up as a team ready to cause trouble in league proceedings.

The reign of Norristown High as champion of the Class A Suburban Basketball League seems destined to run another year. By defeating Lower Merion High, 29 to 24, at Ardmore Friday night, the champions disposed of its closest rival.

It was Norristown's fifth straight victory of the season and its record of not losing a league game since entering the suburban circuit is still unmarred.

Going into the game determined to overthrow the champions, Lower Merion proved unequal to the task. The Ardmore five trailed from the start but undismayed they battled the champions throughout and several times came within a point of tying the count.

It was the crucial game of the season for both teams and the winner gained undisputed possession of first place in the league race.

PLANS PROGRESSING

Plans for the fire company testimonial banquet on February 25 are progressing rapidly. Tickets have been sent to all those who attended last year's banquet and to a number of other residents.

The committee is anxious, however, to have in attendance many who did not go to last year's affair. Fred C. Patten, chairman of the entertainment committee, has tickets on sale at the post office, which he is anxious to place in the hands of public-spirited residents who wish to express their appreciation of the work of the fire company.

Long Life for Your Clothes

The fact has been demonstrated that clothes that receive the proper cleaning and pressing attention last longer than the garments that are neglected. It has also been demonstrated to the men and women of this borough that at this shop their clothes receive the proper attention and that we only make a fair profit from our labors.

THIS IS TO THE LADY OF THE HOUSE

A Bank account is particularly valuable to the Housekeeper.

It saves those petty annoyances so often concurrent with the payment of your household bills—making change, asking for a receipt, being sure you have the "cash on hand."

The little stub on your check-book will tell you plainly "how much" and "where" the money went; the neatly designed check, easily filled in and signed, will be a pleasure to dispense. Payment by check is a reliable, dignified method of settling your obligations—and a sure proof that they have been met.

COTTER'S MARKET

"Please stand by for one moment"—let's call this page a sort of an announcer while we are broadcasting for a few weeks many important items in this quickly comprehensible, easily readable fashion. Prices here for week of February 6 to 12, inclusive. See if you do not find some items on this page that you may need or could readily use.

"Batch" means the dough for one baking, or the bread. With this word and its definition in mind we can very grammatically say that we here present a "batch" of good bargains in groceries and meats that will be "dough" for those of our trade who may "knead" it.

We most urgently solicit a trial order from any reader who is not dealing with us.

WARNED OF MANDAMUS: COUNTY BUDGET GIVEN

tenance of indigent insane and a modest structure for tubercular patients.

The budget presented by the controller calls for the expenditure of $2,262,482 by the county in 1926, but this is only an estimated expense.

"The business of a growing county prevents establishing a specific amount required by each department," Controller Irvin declared in presenting his budget. "Hence the amounts are only estimates, but I believe they are sufficient to cover the demand in most cases."

Budget Figures.

Following is the money allotted to each department of the county by the controller:

Commissioners' office	$ 67,442
Controller's office	15,531
Coroner's office	1,128

WOMEN VOTERS

Meet Stites, Ludlow, Evans and Orr at League Luncheon.

Many members of the Lower Merion League of Women Voters availed themselves of the opportunity to hear and meet their representatives at Harrisburg by attending the tea given at the League House, 1725 Spruce street, Friday afternoon, by the Montgomery County League.

There were present: Hon. Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, who represents the Twelfth Senatorial district; Hon. Benjamin H. Ludlow, of Ardmore, representing the First district; Hon. Burd P. Evans, of Trappe, and Hon. David Orr, of Lansdale, both representatives of the Third Congressional district.

Senator Stites gave a resume of conditions with regard to toll for the New Jersey bridge; Mr. Orr discussed giant power, and Mr. Ludlow and Mr. Evans talked of the coal situation. Mr. Evans explaining his resolution which he has presented to the House.

Mrs. John Y. Huber, of Ardmore, was chairman of arrangements and she was assisted by Mrs. J. Aubrey Sutton, of Ardmore; Mrs. David Soliday, Miss Susan Yocum, of Cynwyd; Miss Anne Forstall, of Rosemont; Mrs. William Sheehan, of Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Samuel McCreary, Mrs. O. S. McCormick and Mrs. Frank Royer. The reception room presented a most attractive appearance. Mrs. George Vaux, Jr., of Bryn Mawr, and Miss Mary Lippincott, of Wyncote, poured. Miss Gertrude Ely, of Bryn Mawr, chairman of Montgomery county, presided.

ONE NEW SHELF

Given to the Narberth Library's New Building.

The Fortnightly Club, a group of women in Narberth, who for many years have met regularly to discuss subjects of cultural value, voted at their last meeting to give $10 to the Narberth Library. This money is to be used for the purchase of a shelf in the new building and a book of special merit to place on the shelf, hoping at a later time to add other books to this shelf.

This action on the part of the Fortnightly Club is very encouraging to the Library workers, who are being faced with a serious problem in the furnishing and equipping of the new building. When the new building on the playground is turned over to the Library, it will then be necessary for the Library to provide shelves and furniture. The Fortnightly Club learned that one shelf would average $5 in cost and based their gift on that figure. This is a gratifying incident as the gift came unsolicited and shows that the work of the Library is being appreciated.

Another gift to the Library this past week was a group of books for the children's department from Mrs. John B. Brooks. This group includes: "Why the Chimes Rang," by Alden; "Boys' and Girls' California," by Salisbury, and "Silver Pennies," by Thompson. These are very delightful books in themselves and the attractive editions in which the books are bound add to their charm. Mrs. Brooks was generous enough to permit the librarian to choose the books, for which she assumed financial responsibility.

THE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

charges are immediately reinvested in still newer publications. Thus the very latest books dealing with all subjects are purchased and made available for the public's use just as rapidly as the accumulation of rental receipts will permit.

Any resident of Narberth or vicinity—child or adult—may borrow books simply by going to the Library during the hours stated and filling his or her name and address with Mrs. Elizabeth K. Wood, the librarian, or any of her assistants.

The Library is now a public community institution in the full sense of the phrase—the recent gift to the people of Narberth by the Women's Community Club, whose members started the work five years ago. Today, as throughout its entire history, the work of the Library has been done by voluntary workers, none of whom has ever received a penny's compensation.

The Library is now managed and directed by the Narberth Community Library Association, which is composed of a group of men and women citizens. Any resident of Narberth is eligible for membership in this association. There are two forms of membership, yearly and life, the fee for the former being $1 per year, and the latter $25.

PUSSYFOOT'S EYE

"Pussyfoot" Johnson, who has just returned after several months of work in the Balkan States, is indulging in some bitter criticism of the big wet daily papers of the country for misrepresenting him. They quote him as saying that he does not expect prohibition to be a success, although he intends to stick to it.

It will be recalled that this famous traveler and agitator was dragged from a hall where he was speaking in England by a mob of students and in the melee one of his eyes was destroyed. The King and Queen expressed their regret that an American citizen who had been invited by the British Temperance Society to deliver a series of addresses should be thus treated.

On the evening of February 14 "Pussyfoot" Johnson will be the guest of his old friend and colleague, Dr. Chalfant, of Chestnut avenue, and will be the speaker at the community mass meeting in the Narberth Lutheran Church at 7:30 o'clock.

The wet newspapers of Great Britain got frightened about the lost eye and raised a fund of $10,000 in which to compensate "Pussyfoot," but the American was game. He accepted the $10,000 with thanks and then turned the check over as a donation to an asylum for the blind while his friends in America took care of his hospital and other expenses.

SCHOOL NEWS

A new Encyclopedia of Popular Science has been added to the library. It consists of 15 volumes and will be used for reference work in school.

Julia Fittipaldi, of the ninth grade, has been out of school, ill from tonsillitis. She returned on Tuesday and everyone is glad to have her back again.

On Friday, January 29, an exciting basketball game was played between the school team and the alumni of 1924. The score at the end of the first half was 16-6 in favor of the alumni. At the end of the game the school team was within one point of a tie, 26-25, the alumni winning.

This week a series of interclass basketball games will begin. Two rounds will be played, and the championship will be decided about the middle of March. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the coming game on Thursday between the eighth and ninth grade teams.

The volley ball game between the seventh and ninth grade girls on Tuesday resulted in a victory for the latter by two games to one. The boys' game on Wednesday between the eighth and ninth grades resulted in a victory for the ninth grade by a score of 2 to 0.

The standing of the teams to date is as follows:

BOYS
Won	Lost	Per Cent.
Ninth Grade 4	1	.800
Seventh Grade 2	3	.400
Eighth Grade 2	4	.333
GIRLS
Won	Lost	Per Cent.
Ninth Grade 2	0	1.000
Eighth Grade 0	1	.000
Seventh Grade 0	1	.000

The program for assembly on Friday, February 5, was presented by the Classical Club, Miss Tyson, leader. They presented a one-act play entitled "The Slave Girl." The play belongs to the Roman period of the age of Cicero. The costumes were of the period, but the speech was in English.

The eighth grade Latin sections also contributed two short playlets in Latin.

On Wednesday, February 3, the third of a series of mothers' meetings was held in the school auditorium. Demonstration classes in spelling were conducted by Miss MacMorran and by Miss Holloway. The editors for this week are Nellie Fratanoni and Julia Fittipaldi.

MRS. FOWLER HONORED BY COMMUNITY CLUB

Mrs. Ross brought a similar message from the League. Mrs. Darville presented a wrist watch, the joint gift of the two bodies. Mrs. Fowler responded, her usual graceful force a little shaken by feeling. She then took her place in the receiving line with the present and past presidents of the club and the League, that everyone might say her own goodbye. Mr. Nash and Mrs. Ross made a background of music for the reception.

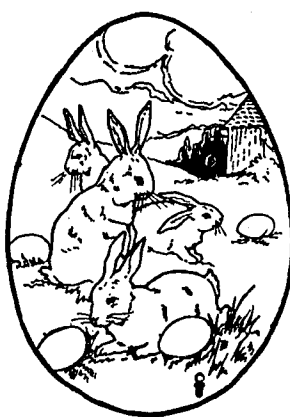

The hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. C. A. Peeney. Her aides were Mrs. W. J. Laughlin, Mrs. H. B. Murray, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. R. M. Staley, Mrs. R. E. Walker, Mrs. Walter Shaw, Mrs. D. E. McCormick, Miss Florence Jacoby, Mrs. H. C. Fenno and Mrs. Wallis Boileau.

If any committee in the Community Club does more work and gets less glory than the hospitality committee, let it raise both hands! Each member in turn acts as hostess at a regular club meeting. The group as a whole served the fall luncheon, arranged a successful card party in December and a delightful dinner dance in January. The final achievement to date has been to serve a hot lunch to 154 persons at the County Federation meeting on January 28. The food, except for cakes donated by club members, was brought from the kitchens of the Central Y. M. C. A., Philadelphia. Otherwise the work fell wholly on the committee who, because of the unexpectedly large number of guests, got no luncheon for themselves. If that isn't self-sacrificing devotion, what is?

The decorations at the county meeting, with their soft green and cheery yellow, were arranged by Mrs. J. S. Harris.

The advertising columns form a chants. Refer to them often.
